NEWS RELEASE

Cyclone George

Perth, 9 March 2007: Fortescue Metals Group Ltd (Fortescue, ASX:FMG) confirms that an accommodation camp for workers working on its Pilbara railway located around 100 kilometres south of Port Hedland was in the path of Cyclone George and was extensively damaged overnight. Fortescue also confirms that a number of people have been injured at the camp and that there has been one fatality.

Fortescue's focus is on giving every possible assistance to the emergency services and safeguarding the welfare of its workers in the Pilbara region.

At this stage we cannot give an accurate assessment of damage and we will not be releasing any details to the media concerning the injured or the fatality until all affected families have been contacted directly.
