Applications open for Fortescue Community Support program

PORT HEDLAND, 1 October 2014: Local community organisations involved in programs, activities and events within the council boundaries of the Town of Port Hedland, the Shire of East Pilbara and the Tom Price area are encouraged to apply for funding of up to $5,000 through the Fortescue Community Support program.

Now in its 6th year, the Fortescue Community Support program has helped not-for-profit organisations and community groups fund beneficial programs, activities and events.

Fortescue community manager Vicki James said the Community Support program focuses on initiatives that embrace and support education and training, Indigenous engagement, health and wellness, community safety, community involvement, economic development and environmental responsibility.

"Fortescue values the communities in which we operate and the Community Support program is just one of the ways we contribute toward these communities," Mrs James said.

Applications for the Fortescue Community Support program are open from 1st October, 2014 until 31st October, 2014.
